

TROLLPHY

Trollphy event is for those who want everyone to have a good laugh with humorous memes on physics/physicists. While the topic can be remotely associated with the sacred subject of physics, witty interpretations of physical truths or wacky tales from the life of a physicist will be most welcome.

Event Format

- A team can have a maximum of 2 participants.
- A meme with a funny quote related to it is to be made on physics/physicists.
- A list of topics and names of physics and physicists on whom meme is to be made will be provided before the event.
- Any sort of offensive words are not entertained.
- Maximum three memes per team.
- 5 teams will be shortlisted for second round, which will be a surprise round.

Judging Criteria

- Meme should be original. No piracy/ copy from internet.
- Idea is relatively given more importance.
- The physics behind the meme and quote
