

THE ULTIMATE MANAGER

A fun filled, creative and challenging event, where we will test you on your business acumen, creativity, “thinking-outside-the-box” capabilities and general awareness. The Ultimate Manager is the premier managerial event of Pragyan, the official tech-fest of National Institute of Technology, Trichy.

If you have a competitive spirit with a never-back-down attitude, join the event and prove it on a platform where the entire NITT will be watching.

The winners will get a wild card entry into the main event of The Ultimate Manager in Pragyan 2016 where INR 30,000 worth of prize money can be won!

So What are you waiting for? Come and taste the pint size fun of being an ultimate manager

FORMAT

The event is going to have three rounds.

The first round will test how knowledgeable you are with a QUIZ!

In the second round, you will be fulfilling your dream of wearing a power suit by conducting a case study discussion with role play.

The third and most exciting round is an Auction round, where you will buy a product and sell the same product!!

We'll be testing your creativity, skills, and knowledge.
